The above is but one of thousands of commendations we receive every year, we might say every day, from women throughout the world, who know the benefits of the BISSELL. If you just stop a moment to consider the matter, we know you will not let a day pass until you buy a

WAS KILLED

While Trying to Escape Arrest—Fate of a Member of "Smart Set", Company Which Played Canton.

Chester, Pa., June 17.—William Horsey, a negro performer, member of the "Smart Set" company, was killed here today while trying to escape arrest. Horsey, his wife alleges, was trying to murder her and her cries attracted Denby and Moore, two local police officers. They gave chase to the negro who refused to stop and shot him, the bullet entering his heart, killing him instantly.

The two policemen are under arrest pending the coroner's inquest.

The "Smart Set" company was one of the attractions at the Grand the past season.

HAVE ENOUGH SIGNERS

Local Option Vote at Orrville Seems Sure—Campaign Against Saloons.

Orrville, June 17.—It is extremely probable that Orrville is to be in the throes of a local option campaign during the next thirty days. It is understood that the petition to hold an election for the purpose of voting on the wet and dry question has now more than enough signers, and it may be presented to the city council at their next meeting, which will be held Monday evening. It is reported that the council will not order an election immediately, even if it is found that the petition is legally signed, but the election will have to be held within thirty days after the petition. Another election on the local option question cannot be held, whether the issue is successful or not before 1908.

It is given on reliable authority and by a party who has been interested in the petition, that the number of signers at present is in excess of 250 and that at least 275 names of bona fide Orrville voters will appear on the petition when it is presented to the council.

The campaign against the saloons began officially Sunday, June 3, and has been actively carried on by the churches and temperance followers. Two hundred signers were secured the first Sunday, and the drys claim the number has been gradually increased, until at the present time there are said to be more than enough signers to secure a vote.

OBJECTS TO PHONOGRAPH.

Telephone Company Says Noise Distracts the "Hello" Girls.

Canal Dover, June 17.—The Home Telephone company has been granted a temporary injunction preventing James Mullin, proprietor of a moving picture show, from operating a large phonograph near the entrance to his place of business.

The company claims its operators are unable to give proper attention to their work on account of the noise, and the service is otherwise affected by the alleged music.

A suit for damages to the extent of $1000 has been filed by the telephone company.

BROKE DOWN

John Alexander Dowie Lost Control of Himself in Court and Wept.

Chicago, June 17.—John Alexander Dowie lost control of himself toward the end of his story to the court and broke down and cried. His sob resounded through the court room; his shoulders heaved and shook and his frame quivered with emotions. After a few minutes' intermission the proceedings were continued.

Separation of the body and soul and divine warnings resulting in the prevention of an attempted assassination were spoken of in detail by Dowie when, for the fourth time, he took the witness stand before Judge Landis.

The "apostle" rehearsed the story of the "separation of his soul and spirit" from his body and declared that during this interval he hovered near and could see his dead body.

Again he told of the supposed divine intervention which prevented his death at the hands of assassins in Australia who had attempted, he said, to cause his death by the explosion of dynamite.

Angered at some of Attorney Jacob Newman's questions during the progress of the investigation Dowie again broke forth with:

"Newman, if I die tonight I want the world to know that I am a tolerant man. Here I am today and there you are. You are fighting me and asking me questions in a mean way. You are a Jew. And yet I can stand it."

While testifying he refreshed himself by eating honey and butter.

Allenists employed by the Voliva faction have been in Judge Landis' court for three days studying Dowie as he told the story of his life, his mental and spiritual growth, his plans, ambitions, dreams and visions. Later these will be called upon to give their opinion as to his present mental condition.

Daum Reunion.

The Daum reunion will be held at the residence of John L. Stockert, in Jackson township, one-half mile from Mudbrook church on Wednesday, June 20, 1906. All friends and relatives are cordially invited. Len Schneider, president; Lillian Baechtel, secretary.

Following the Flag.

When our soldiers went to Cuba and the Philippines, health was the most important consideration. Willis T. Morgan, retired Commissary Sergeant U. S. A., of Rural Routh 1, Concord, N. H., says: "I was two years in Cuba and two years in the Philippines, and being subject to colds, I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which kept me in perfect health. And now, in New Hampshire, we find it the best medicine in the world for coughs, colds, bronchial troubles and all lung diseases. Guaranteed at The Durbin & Wright Co., druggists, Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free."

DEBS URGES

Working Class to Rise Against Capitalistic Advancements—Flays Senate, Grover Cleveland and a Judge.

Toledo, June 17.—"We shall use peaceful means as long as they are accessible to resist oppression and to achieve our complete freedom, but if such means are taken from us, we will not hesitate to report to those which circumstances may demand."

Such was one resolution adopted by a massmeeting of about 1,200 people held in protest of the Moyer-Haywood incident in Idaho. The meeting was called by the socialists and was addressed by Eugene V. Debs. After describing the story of Moyer-Haywood he made an appeal to the working class to rise and act against the capitalistic advances. In his address he took occasion to pay sarcastic respects to Grover Cleveland, the United States senate and Judge Grosscup, of Chicago. In speaking of Judge Grosscup he designated him as a man who disgraces the bench today and who was appointed by the influence of George M. Pullman, and was his tool. He called Cleveland "Pompous Grover the First," and said that the United States Senate was a body of proud corporation lawyers.

The meeting was most enthusiastic.

SWEEPING CHANGES

And Reforms Advocated by Judge Gibbons in Report to Justices.

Chicago June 17.—Sweeping changes and reforms are advocated by Judge John Gibbons in his annual report to the justices of the supreme court. Among them are:

- Death for assassins of women.
- Obligatory grand jury investigation of all public offices semi-annually.
- Verdicts reached by three-fourths the members of a jury to be binding in all legal proceedings save where life or liberty is at stake.
- Immediate trial of persons charged with crime; simpler criminal legal procedure.
- Bond system for automobile owners to indemnify persons they may injure through negligence.
- Elimination of the doctrine of assumed risk as a bar to damage suits where employees are injured while at work.
- Limiting legal basis for absolute divorce to infidelity.
- Simplifying the process of securing jurors by limiting the number of questions to be propounded by counsel.

Other suggestions are included in the report of the jurist, based upon fourteen years of observation on the bench. One of the most significant, perhaps, is a note of warning sounded against abolishing the present grand jury system proposed during the last session of the legislature.
